PALM HARBOR CONFERENCE

The Florida Accreditation conference was held October 6-10, 2014 at the Innisbrook Golf and Spa Resort in Palm Harbor Florida. Florida Accreditation thanks the Florida Police Accreditation Coalition for their dedication and hard work in making this conference a success. We also thank the Pinellas County Clerk of the Court Inspector General, Tarpon Springs Police Department, St. Petersburg Police Department, Tampa Police Department, Clearwater Police Department, and Gulfport Police Department for hosting the conference. The volunteers were greatly appreciated for their many hours dedicated to the conference.

The Florida Corrections Accreditation Commission (FCAC) met on October 7, 2014 for facility reviews and to conduct general business. The main order of business was to grant reaccreditation to the Alachua County Sheriff's Office Department of the Jail and the Wakulla County Sheriff's Office Jail. The Standards Review and Interpretations Committee, chaired by Sheriff Robert Peryam, met on October 6, 2014 and recommended changes to FCAC standards. The Change Notice and updated Standards Manuals are on the website at www.flaccreditation.org.

The Commission for Florida Law Enforcement Accreditation, Inc. (CFA) met on October 8, 2014 to review agencies for accredited status and conduct general business. The main order of business was to acknowledge the professionalism of agencies through granting accreditation. The Tampa Police Department, Broward Office of the Inspector General, and Office of Financial Regulation, Office of the Inspector General were awarded initial accreditation. Agencies reaccredited by the Commission at this meeting were: Escambia County Sheriff's Office, Daytona Beach Police Department, Lake Mary Police Department, Longwood Police Department, Ponce Inlet Police Department, Florida State University Police Department, University of North Florida Police Department, Santa Rosa County Sheriff's Office, Department of Health, Office of the Inspector General, Lantana Police Department, Sebastian Police Department, Stuart Police Department, Vero Beach Police Department, Wakulla County Sheriff's Office and the Fernandina Beach Police Department. The Manatee County Sheriff's Office, Osceola County Sheriff's Office, Sarasota County Sheriff's Office, Seminole County Sheriff's Office, Clay County Sheriff's Office, Jacksonville Sheriff's Office, and Marion County Sheriff's Office were awarded reaccreditation by the Commission with recognition as Excelsior Agencies.

The CFA Standards Review and Interpretations Committee met on October 7, 2014, chaired by Commissioner Deryl Loar, and made several recommendations for standards modifications to the Commission. The CFA Standards Change Notice is on the website, www.flaccreditation.org.

The next Florida Accreditation Conference is scheduled for February 23 - 27, 2015, at the Plaza Resort and Spa in Daytona Beach, Florida. We look forward to seeing you there!

Message to the Florida Accreditation Community

This year continues to be a busy year for the Florida Accreditation Office, during the October conference we had three agencies that were awarded initial accreditation and 22 agencies reaccredited. We will be considering 27 agencies for accreditation status at the February 2015 conference.

The FAO is still working tirelessly with the committee on the re-writing of the manuals. We are working on completing this task by October 2015. We thank you once again for your patience during this process.

We are consistently adding training opportunities to include New Assessor Orientation Training which was offered October 22 -23, 2014 at the Gainesville Sheriff's Office. As well as Managing the Accreditation Process Training, November 5-6, 2014 at the Tampa Police Department.

Please let us know if you have any questions, concerns or comments, and we look forward to continuing the delivery of excellent service to each and every one of you.

Sincerely,
Florida Accreditation Office
